Small Group Seminar

The Small Group Seminar is designed for those in the ministry of formational prayer that seek to integrate healing in the context of community. This event will include lectures on the foundations of group work, group process and dynamics, and the essentials necessary for emotional and spiritual growth in a healing group. Participants will engage in a small group experience using the Healing Care Groups curriculum. All participants for this event must have attended the Formational Prayer Seminar and purchased a Healing Care Groups Leader's Guide.

The following four principles will be the focus of this seminar:

- Small Group Foundations:
A Microcosm of Biblical Community
- Group Process and Dynamics:
The Healing Journey
- Essentials for Growth: Building Community
- Essentials for Growth: Experience Jesus

Seminar Leader

Dr. Donna Thomas is the advisory board chair of the Certificate in Formational Prayer program. She received her Doctor in Ministry in the formational counseling track from Ashland Theological Seminary. Donna is a trained clinical counselor with several years of small group ministry experience. A gifted teacher, Donna is an adjunct instructor in the general and formational counseling tracks in the Doctorate of Ministry program at ATS. She also trains leaders to facilitate Healing Care Groups at the Formational Prayer Seminars.
